INTRODUCTION

Named in this Directory are the members of the Champions for the Public Relations Student Society of America as of February 2017.

Founded in 1981 by Betsy Plank, APR, Fellow PRSA, the Champions for PRSSA gather those who have special, ongoing interests in PRSSA, its student members, and in public relations education. Its roster includes practitioners and educators, companies, agencies, other organizations and Chapters of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA), the parent organization of PRSSA. Individuals who are not affiliated with PRSA are also welcome. (See the enrollment form in back of this directory.)

The annual membership fee of $50 matches student PRSSA dues, is tax deductible, and is payable to the PRSA Foundation, noted Champions For PRSSA, 33 Maiden Lane 11th Floor, New York, NY 10038. Fees are used solely for national programs and incentives that could not otherwise be provided by PRSSA or its parent organization. Champions stay up-to-date on students and their education through newsletters and other special communications.

The Champions sponsor the Teahan Awards for outstanding PRSSA Chapters, Chapter Advisers and sponsoring PRSA Chapters. As a longtime sponsor of the Plank/PRSSA Scholarships, the Champions salute and thank the PRSA Foundation.

During the annual Conference event, PRSSA leaders meet informally with the Champions, who often serve as speakers for various student programs. PRSSA Chapters are also invited to contact Champions for special mentoring and counsel.

The Champions encourage graduating PRSSA members to become PRSA Associate Members and with PRSA, co-sponsor the first two years of professional membership for past PRSSA National Committee members. Demonstrating the student Society's leadership promise are PRSSA alumni who now serve on the PRSA Board of Directors, national committees and as PRSA Chapter officers.

Co-chaired by Rochelle Ford, Ph.D, APR; Gary McCormick, APR, Fellow PRSA; Mary Beth West, APR; and Brian Price, the Champions supplement the work of PRSA and PRSSA Advisers. They have the enthusiastic support of PRSA and PRSSA leaders, who encourage strong and productive relationships between professionals and the next generation that will shape the future of public relations.
